Position Title: Producer (Bands C, D and E)
Date: March 2018

Location/Business Unit: News

Reports To: Programme Editor/ Executive Producer

Reporting to the Position: Nil

Position Purpose:
As an independent and commercial-free public service media organisation, Radio New Zealand’s purpose is to serve the public interest. To this end you will:
Help create a vibrant, live experience on air and online which draws on a wider range of story-telling techniques including visual elements (stills, video, graphics and live to camera), live video streaming, strong writing, research and angle generation, the attraction of great talent and development of a social media audience and engagement with it.

Position Responsibilities (Core Production responsibilities – Bands C, D and E):
- Producers in Band C are expected to carry out all the Core Production responsibilities, but are likely to require a significant degree of supervision and guidance with at least some of these responsibilities.
- Producers in Band D are expected to carry out all the Core Production responsibilities. They may still require a degree of supervision and guidance with some responsibilities.
- Senior Producers will display a level of news judgement and professional competency that requires minimal guidance. The role modelling of Radio New Zealand Organisational Behavioural Competencies becomes critical with seniority.

Editorial
- Work with the show’s dedicated production team, the newsroom, digital and others across RNZ on editorial components for on-air and online, including initiating, selecting and developing story ideas.
- Ensure stories are or will be fit for all RNZ platforms including, visual pieces, interaction with the host, guests and audience (via social) and an emphasis on the live experience,
- Maintain acute understanding of story opportunities and developments across the spectrum that underline RNZ desire to tell its stories:– from news, to sport, to human interest and life and culture pieces,
- Lead and develop fresh stories for multimedia.
- Read in and monitor news flows, keeping up to date with both national and international news stories at all times, through all sources including contacts and social media,
- Own responsibility for programme content and format as required.

Production (Broadcast and Web)
- Source great talent and provide strong and relevant material for the show’s host, adding depth to RNZ journalism including the voices upon whom the news has an impact.
- Break stories on-air and online, keeping in mind the elements identified above, including innovative angles, heads and questions,
- Appear on screen as required,
- Work in both the field and the studio as required,
- Develop (not only) stories but ensure insight as to the meaning behind the stories,
- Make engaging video journalism with the resources on offer, i.e. the use of graphics, green room process shots,
- When required, capture video with a phone/camera,
- Produce material which works on-air, visually and online,
- Undertake the required planning and organisation to ensure all facilities and services necessary for live and pre-recorded interviews are available when required (e.g. phone numbers, location of talent, back up in case of problems, etc),
- Arrange live and pre-recorded audio and video based interviews,
- Undertake and resolve digital editing, on air production and sound quality problems,
