Long Form and Data Journalist

|-------------------------------|---|
| Date | August 2020 |
| Location/Business Unit | Digital Team |
| Reporting to | Executive Editor, Long-form Journalism |
| Key relationships | Executive Editor, Long-form Journalism, In Depth team members, News and Digital staff, Graphic Designer, Freelance Front-end Developer. |
| Type of role | Permanent, Full time |

The Role / Position Purpose

To generate original, compelling in-depth journalism that breaks stories and examines issues of national significance (although sometimes you'll just tell a good yarn).

These stories will often be informed by data analysis and/or told through data visualisation.

Position Accountabilities – what you're responsible for

Contribute to growing RNZ's reputation as a leader in original, compelling, trust-worthy investigative and in-depth reporting by:

- Finding, researching and producing important, well-told, compelling stories, across platforms
- Obtaining and examining/analysing data to uncover the story it tells or to add depth and weight to an existing story
- Using data visualisation as a tool to tell/help tell a compelling story - and at times working with a graphic designer and a developer to do this
- Making stories relevant, independent, comprehensive, impartial and balanced in terms of exposure to risks eg: legal proceedings
- Ensuring your work reflects the impact an issue or event has on people, with their voices coming through in the stories you tell
- Actively pursuing stories after you've broken them, to extract their full value
- Sharing your skills with the long form team and others at RNZ to help grow data journalism
- Ensuring content meets appropriate RNZ standards

Contribute to growing new, more diverse audiences for RNZ by:

- Seeking Māori perspectives when researching stories
- Covering a diverse range of stories from diverse communities
- Working with your manager to present work in the medium/s and on the platform/s most likely to reach new audiences

Model good relationships by maintaining positive and productive relationships within RNZ and outside the organisation by:

- Maintaining an honest and open ‘no surprises’ status with your manager on story-focused developments
- Providing feedback to your manager of what’s working or not working, while avoiding knee-jerk reactions
- Ensuring your manager understands story development time frames and, if necessary, competing priorities
- Modelling a collaborative working approach with other team members and staff across RNZ
- Maintaining external contacts that optimise RNZ strategy, and conducting relationships with these contacts in ways that fit with RNZ standards
- Addressing difficulties as they arise, rather than avoiding difficult conversations

Organisational

- Be aware and adhere to RNZ’s Editorial Policy standards
- Contribute to the overall effectiveness of RNZ
- Participate in promotions or awards which help promote RNZ’s image and profile
- Observe statutory requirements and RNZ policies and frameworks
- Actively participate in and contribute to the development and achievement of own performance targets and the review of work priorities to achieve the organisation’s goals and objectives
- Act in a manner consistent with Equal Employment Opportunities principles and practices

Health and Safety

- Take responsibility for own health and safety and that of others
- Participate in any safety meetings etc. as required by RNZ
- Comply with the Health & Safety policies and guidelines and complete responsibilities relating to the Health & Safety Business Plan

Emergency Management / Lifeline Utility Role

- To maintain broadcast continuity in an emergency, you may be required to carry out other duties suited to your skills and experience. This may involve you being temporarily relocated to another RNZ site if required, usually in a major city.
